

Student wins community service award.

Dear Mr Cowell,

Earlier on this year I was nominated for a Netball Golden Globe Volunteering Award by my coach for the hours I dedicate to volunteering in the county. This is a regional competition where a board of judges read the nominations and pick a winner who they feel is most worthy. In June I attended an event in Derby where I won the East Midlands Young Volunteer of the year award for 2017. This means I am now in contention to receive this award NATIONALLY! However for this round it goes down to votes from the public. It would mean so much to me to win this award representing region, county, club and school. Any support would be hugely appreciated. The link to vote is: <https://www.englandnetball.co.uk/make-the-game/goalden-globe-awards-2017/2017-sport-experience-young-volunteer-award/>

Thank you,
Ella Jennings

HAIRSPRAY!

Simpson Abby ▶ Wollaston Community Page

Tuesday at 10:02 pm · Wollaston

I have just returned from what can only be described as a phenomenal performance by Wollaston staff and students. Hairspray, westend standard, I kid you not. It was incredible. As a parent and teacher, I have never seen such a superb High school performance. If you haven't got tickets, get them! Two nights remaining. We should be so proud to live in a village with such a great top school and extremely talented young people. Congratulations Wollaston School, you can be very proud.

Kerry Lover

Simpson Abby Zara cannot wait to go!!

Tuesday at 10:43 pm Like Reply

Write a reply...

Victoria White

Can't wait to see it on Thursday!

Tuesday at 10:38 pm Like Reply

Amanda Kindell Was Horastead

It was amazing. Well done to all those involved

Tuesday at 10:46 pm Like Reply

Alexandra Hoskins

It was amazing a truly talented bunch !!!

Tuesday at 10:51 pm Like Reply

Wollaston School students raise almost £4,000 for charities

L-R: Hollie Williams, Victoria Harding, former students Daisy Edwards, Sophie Freestone, and parent, Fiona

Published: 06:00 Saturday 15 July 2017

Sixth form students at Wollaston School demonstrated extraordinary generosity by raising almost £4,000 in their annual RAG week.

Every year the students in the sixth form host a week of events to raise money for their chosen charities.

1
comments

HAVE YOUR
SAY

L-R: Hollie Williams, Victoria Harding, Imti Farookhi, from The Lowdown, Phoebe Davis & Meg McGuckin.

Events this year included Wollaston's Got Talent, Strictly Come Dancing and the ritual humiliation of male staff leg waxing.

Over the course of the week, students raised a whopping £3,850 shared between three different charities - The Lowdown, Cransley Hospice and AtALoss.

The Lowdown provides counselling support for young people with a variety of mental health problems, ranging from depression to self-harm.

Imti Farookhi, chief executive of The Lowdown, said: "With an increasing demand on counselling services for young people this money is really welcome.

L-R: Hollie Williams, Victoria Harding, Mark Spruce from Cransley Hospice, Phoebe Davis & Meg McGuckin.

"It will go directly to train counsellors and will help to change people's lives."